

Morris Germansky

131 River Bend Road, Berkeley Heights, NJ 07922
Mobile Phone: (973) 738-6137 E-Mail: msg@brandeis.edu

OBJECTIVE

Entry-level employment in an academic research environment aimed at acquiring and honing communication and research skills, and gaining experience in my fields of study. Money earned will be applied to continuing my college education.

EDUCATION

Brandeis University 2011–2015

Dean's List since Spring 2012 and a 3.59 GPA.

Presently a junior, double-majoring in History, Language and Linguistics with an Anthropology minor

Governor Livingston High School 2007–2011

Graduated with a 4.1 GPA (Advanced Placement weighted).

AP courses: Spanish, U.S. History, European History, Micro and Macro Economics, English Literature

Active member of award-winning Highlander Marching Band for four years, promoted to Section Leader of Upper Woodwinds and Pipe Major of Bagpipes. See <http://highlanderband.org>

EXPERIENCE

Lab Assistant at The Polinsky Language Sciences Lab, Harvard University 2013–Present

Transcribe, translate, and encode Spanish language data for heritage language research

Upperclassmen Buddy at Brandeis University Gateway Scholars Program 2013–Present

Individual social contact for international student to accustom to American university life and practice English skills

Team Member at Pet Supplies Plus Summer 2013

Work register, care for animals (various rodents, ferrets, fish, &c.), stock, and customer service in a retail environment

Note Taker for Brandeis University Spring 2013

Official Note Taker for HIST 61A: Cultures in Conflict since 1300, taught by Professor Jankowski

Bagpiper Musician For Hire/Bagpipe Tutor 2008–Present

Self-employed musician for hire and instructor of the great highland bagpipes

Individualize and coordinate musical events regarding scheduling, logistics, and musical selections

Highlight of recent events: The Duke of Edinburgh's International Award Gala at the Pierre Hotel, NY for HRH Prince Edward (2011), VT Physician Assistant Conference, Stowe, VT (2012), American Academy of Physician Assistant National Conference in Toronto (2012), Drew University Commencement (2012), and Tartan Day on Ellis Island (2009 to 2011). See separate Music Performance List and <http://germansky.org/morris/bagpipes>

Music Instructor/Pipe Sergeant: Rampant Lion Pipe Band 2008–Present

Volunteer musical instructor to lead small group bagpipe instruction sessions in the Rampant Lion Pipe Band (<http://RLPB.org>), Basking Ridge, NJ

Our pipe band competes in EUSPBA sanctioned competitions, town events, parades, black tie galas, and performs at various other musical engagements.

Spring 2014

Led this band as Pipe Sergeant to an award-winning season with elevation to Eastern United States Pipe Band Association (EUSPBA) Grade 4 in only two seasons.

SKILLS

Conversational Spanish, transcribing and translating Spanish language data, experience with foreign ESL students, leadership and teaching skills as marching band section leader and Pipe Major in high school and Pipe Sergeant (Bagpipes) in community pipe band as well as bagpipe tutor, multi-tasking gained from setting up and tuning competing musical ensembles, calmness under pressure gained from solo and group musical competition, ethics, strong writing skills (achieved grade A in UWS course), skill with numbers.